Spaces are limited.

The Womanity Foundation and the Center on Gender Equity and Health, University of California, San Diego, invite you to our participant-driven event at the SVRI Forum (19-23 September 2022) in Cancun, Mexico.

Join us and contribute to our discussion about how to decolonize global efforts to prevent violence against women and girls at our event "South to South Equitable Partnerships for Program Adaptation" on Thursday, September 22nd from 08:00am to 08:55am.

This event brings together a diverse group of panellists who will share their experiences and discuss adaptation successes and challenges, including how to foster equitable partnerships between organizations in the Global South. Together, participants will reflect on how to help decolonize the sector and strengthen the work on prevention of VAWG.

OUR GUEST SPEAKERS ARE:

Binita Shrestha | Associate at Prevention Collaborative

Clara Alemann | Director of Programs at Equimundo (formerly Promundo-US)

Phinah Kodisang | CEO of Soul City Institute for Social Justice

Tina Musuya | Principal Consultant in Gender-Based Violence at Social Development Direct

We hope you're able to join us!
